

Kids are Made to Play – Designing a Play-friendly Ecosystem

Global Workshop

Presented by TAFISA

22 July, 13.00 - 15:00 (UTC+2)

Programme

Moderator	Gaëtan Garcia Communications, Marketing & PR Manager, TAFISA, France
13.00 – 13.10	Welcome Words & Introduction mag. Janez Sodržnik , TAFISA Board Member, Slovenia
13.10 – 13.25	Dr. Sergio Lara-Bercial Reader, Leeds Beckett University, UK Coaching Kids - Literally Child's Play
13.25 – 13.30	Q&A
13.30 – 13.45	Jennifer Brown Lerner Deputy Director, Aspen Institute Project Play, USA Project Play: Sport for All, Play for Life
13.45 – 13.50	Q&A
13.50 – 14.05	Peter Parker CEO, Blueearth Foundation, Australia Discover the face to face movement based solution within Australian schools curbing the sedentary epidemic.
14.05 – 14.10	Q&A
14.10 – 14.50	Panel Discussion: How can we foster play and physical literacy-oriented communities? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Drew Mitchell, Director of Physical Literacy, Sport for Life, Canada ▪ Tom Englén, Change the game, Sweden The first steps as a physical literacy community in the city of Umeå and the region of Västerbotten. ▪ Julie Delaire – Germain Peyraud, Play International, France ▪ Michael Flockhart, Sportsec, South Africa
14.50 – 15.00	Conclusion

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER AND PARTICIPATE