President’s Words

2020 has been a special year for the Global Sport for All Movement. As the world faced a global pandemic, we’ve seen people and organisations from the Sport for All community rise to the challenge and display incredible qualities of resourcefulness, innovation, and resilience to provide support and opportunities for people to stay physically active and protect their physical and mental health.

TAFISA has also adapted and worked to connect and empower our members through webinars, online meetings, and virtual courses. The TAFISA World Walking Day – 24 Hours Around the Globe was an unprecedented success, showing transnational solidarity against the COVID-19 pandemic in a planet-wide relay across time zones. Dozens of thousands hailing from 63 countries on all continents connected through the event and passed the baton to share powerful messages of peace, access to sport and education for all, gender equity, health, and solidarity against COVID-19, among many other causes, working together to create the most inclusive and accessible 24-hour relay.

We have built on our successes on all continents, working together with our members to pursue our efforts in Europe and Asia and to reach out to Africa, the Americas and Oceania, developing new partnerships with exciting projects and opportunities. Throughout the year we have seen the development of several projects co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union, the growth of our membership, and ongoing collaborations with global organisations and partners such as the IOC, WHO, UNESCO and NIKE, Inc.

2021 will be a historic year for TAFISA, marking the organisation’s 30th Anniversary since its official founding in 1991. We hope to see you all join us for the 7th TAFISA World Sport for All Games in Lisbon, Portugal, as well as the 27th TAFISA World Congress in Portorož, Slovenia.

Thanks to all members of the TAFISA Family. Your support, commitment and dedication are driving the success of the Global Sport for All Movement.

Together, we are stronger!

Words from Partners

HORST SEEHOFER
Federal Minister of the Interior, Building and Community, Germany

Welcome

The Federal Ministry of the Interior, Building and Community sponsors German high-performance sport, thereby expressing that sport is a priority for the Federal Government. The presence and performance of top athletes motivate people of all ages, with and without disabilities, to follow their example. Therefore, they help make sure that sport events have a social and integrative influence. Promoting sport for all is a responsibility met primarily by state and local governments.

Taking part in sport is not just an attractive leisure-time activity, it also enhances health and general wellbeing. Furthermore, sport promotes values such as respect, loyalty, team spirit and fair play. It connects people across cultural, social, religious and language barriers, helping to foster identification with a group and encourage a feeling of community. International competitions provide an opportunity for everyone to experience how sport promotes solidarity and tolerance between different cultures.

As a main topic during the German Presidency of the European Union in this year 2020, we chose the “Cross-sectoral cooperation for the benefit of sport and physical activity in society”. Because of fruitful and constructive discussions, the EU Council has now adopted a Council conclusion, which focuses on the links with other policy areas, such as education, health, youth, social affairs, public space, urban and rural development, environment, mobility, employment and tourism. Cross-sectoral cooperation can promote sport and physical activity. These other policy areas benefit from a more active population involved in sport and from an infrastructure that invites people to engage in sport and physical activity. Sport and physical activity have a diverse social dimension. In this respect, it is not least important that the relevant decision-makers support the cross-sectoral approach.

Next year in October 2021, the 27th World Congress will provide a platform for the exchange of knowledge and experiences as the Global Sport for All Movement will gather in an interactive and open environment to discuss debate and design the best pathway towards a better world through Sport for All. Hosted by the Olympic Committee of Slovenia – Association of Sports Federations (NOC-ASF) the Congress will welcome over 500 participants from 100 countries. My wish is that this Congress can take place in a physical way.

I wish TAFISA continued success in carrying out its mission to make the world a more peaceful place by fostering the values of sport.

NIKE, Inc.
CAITLIN MORRIS
General Manager, Social & Community Impact

“Nike believes that all kids are made to play, and partners with schools and nonprofit organizations around the world to help more children realize their potential through play and sport. A big part of our investment is to train coaches because we know the impact that a positive, caring coach can have in a child’s life - girls, in particular, are more likely to keep playing when they connect with their coach. This is why we support TAFISA’s work to engage and equip global stakeholders to bring the benefits of sport to all communities around the world.”

DR. DECIUS CHIPANDE
Coordinator, African Union Sports Council

“2020 marked the beginning of a great partnership between TAFISA and AUSC. This collaboration has created an opportunity for AUSC, TAFISA and other stakeholders to develop and implement Sport for All programmes on the continent working towards the realization of AU Agenda 2063 aspirations of a healthy and active Africa. Accomplishments included collaboration in successful webinars such as the one we held recently on Gender Equity in Sport. AUSC is looking forward to future joint programmes with TAFISA.”

JANEZ SODRŽNIK
President, 27th TAFISA World Congress 2021 Organising Committee

“As a pioneer in the field of sport for all and a strong supporter of the National and Global Sport for All Movement, the NOC-ASF with its member organisation Sports Union of Slovenia is proud to host the 27th TAFISA World Congress in 2021, inviting TAFISA members, partners and stakeholders from all continents to beautiful Portorož to feel Slovenia and to exchange and share ideas on using Sport for All to make the world a better place.”
Dear TAFISA Members,

The COVID-19 pandemic has been impacting the whole world and radically challenging our way of life, and we hope you, your family and friends are safe and healthy. Under these circumstances, we are aware of the many challenges everyone is facing and we recognise the passion and resourcefulness of the people that make the Global Sport for All Movement, as they design innovative ways to continue supporting their community through the pandemic. The TAFISA Board of Directors is also still active and has been holding online Board of Directors meetings, while the TAFISA staff has been working from home for most of the year.

The world is changing, and it is our collective responsibility to work towards making this change a positive one, expediting the great potential of Sport for All. Sport and physical activity have proven an essential resource to build resilience and improve both physical and mental health through the pandemic. However, the sport sector has been heavily impacted by the COVID-19 outbreak; events are cancelled or postponed, sport facilities are closed, coaches and volunteers are homebound, and many grassroots organisations are struggling to survive. We must ensure the Global Sport for All Movement gets the recognition and support it deserves and empower it to be part of the solution.

The pandemic represents a milestone in the history of human-kind: an opportunity for a change of paradigm. Sport for All yields benefits spanning all sectors of society and is needed more than ever. This has always been our strong belief and is the core principle behind TAFISA Mission 2030: For a Better World. This has always been our strong belief and is the core principle behind TAFISA Mission 2030: For a Better World. We at TAFISA consider it its duty to support its members no matter the situation and challenges they are facing. In this regard, TAFISA has taken the following steps to support the Global Sport for All Movement throughout the COVID-19 pandemic and ease the transition towards a new world.

- Policy & Advocacy:
  - TAFISA is working hard to advocate Sport for All: asking global decision makers, the Olympic Movement and governments worldwide to support the Global Sport for All Movement and position TAFISA members as key stakeholders who can contribute to the rebuilding of our societies post-COVID-19.
  - TAFISA co-signed a position paper on COVID-19 and its impact on the sport sector, together with more than 40 National Olympic Committees, International Federations and other sport stakeholders.

- Support through exchange of knowledge and resources:
  - A special page on Sport for All and COVID-19 has been opened on the TAFISA website (http://tafisa.org/Sport-for-All-Covid19), gathering good practices, recommendations, programmes and initiatives from the Global Sport for All Movement. TAFISA is preparing and support its members through the current challenges. Please share with us any further interesting resources and initiatives at media@tafisa.org, we will include them.
  - Regional webinars have been organised throughout 2020, involving all TAFISA Members to attend, share experiences on how they are facing COVID-19, present solutions that they have launched, share their needs and expectations towards TAFISA and contribute to the building of the post-COVID-19 Global Sport for All Movement.
  - A series of thematic workshops connected to Mission 2030 will be launched in 2021 to further enable the Sport for All community to use sport for social change.

- Practical actions:
  - The TAFISA World Walking Day has been relaunched in the format of a “24h Relay around the World”, to symbolise the solidarity of the Global Sport for All Movement in those challenging times. 63 countries were represented in 2020 and we are looking forward to the next edition on 3 October 2021.
  - TAFISA Office is reflecting on the possibility to organise online Certified Leadership Course in Sport for All and provide more learning and capacity-building opportunities for its members.

During these trying times, unity and solidarity are essential, and TAFISA stands together with its members to overcome the crisis. We are open to any contributions and ideas from our members. Together, we are stronger!

Yours sincerely,

Prof Ju-Ho Chang

TAFISA Members and the Global Sport for All Movement during COVID-19

TAFISA Members have deployed incredible resourcefulness, creativity and passion as they’ve devised new ways to support and develop Sport for All during the pandemic. We are proud to showcase a few highlights among many other initiatives.

TAFISA Members Keep the World Challenge Day Tradition Alive in 2020

TAFISA World Challenge Day 2020 (WCD) will remain a special edition. While the friendly competition between cities and communities could not be held as usual, several TAFISA members kept managing and contributing to the World Challenge Day. Communities worked hard to follow the WCD’s mission and encourage people to be active for at least 15 minutes on Wednesday 27 May. Following the restrictions in their countries, exercising at home, social distancing and face masks were favoured while mass sports events were avoided.

Among other TAFISA Members, the following communities were active during the WCD:

- Japan
  - The Japanese Olympic Committee has been delivering the WCD’s mission and spirit to local communities, gatherings and schools. The Japan Paralympic Committee has been delivering the WCD’s mission and spirit to local communities, gatherings and schools. Japanese athletes and celebrities such as Ms Kana Oyama, a Japanese volleyball player who played at the Athens 2004 Olympic Games, and targeted all Japanese citizens with the support from the 108 municipalities that planned to participate in WCD 2020.

- Ashkelon, Israel
  - In Israel, a “sports and movement day” was organised in schools. Fitness meetings with outdoor exercise machines took place across neighbourhoods and a Tai Chi meeting for the elderly was held. In total, around 16,000 people participated.

- Rivne, Ukraine
  - Four organisations managed physical activity events to continue their tradition of joining the WCD.

- Budapest, Hungary
  - The Hungarian Leisure Sport Association launched the “Senior Movement” project, providing online training sessions for seniors every day at 8am and 4pm. These short training videos were designed by experts for people of different levels of ability to follow and exercise at home. The videos highlighted the support from the 108 municipalities that planned to participate in WCD 2020.

- Latin America (Brazil, Venezuela, Cuba, Ecuador, etc.)
  - As the main organiser of the “Dia do Desafio” (WCD in Portuguese) in Latin America, Brazilian organisation SESC SP ran an online campaign across Latin America, promoting being physically active from home under the motto “Together on Challenge Day.” Many people across the continent joined in and posted their photos and videos across social media.

Sasakawa Sports Foundation conducts “National Survey on Impact of COVID-19 on Sports and Physical Activities”
Sasakawa Sports Foundation (SSF) conducted a series of online surveys for 6,000 people aged 18 to 79 living across Japan to investigate the impact of COVID-19 on sport and physical activity. The results suggest a significant decline on the participation rate in sport and physical activity compared to 2019. A comparative study of surveys carried out in other countries showed similar results. Through this series of surveys, SSF aims to accurately capture the actual situation of sport and physical activity in Japan under the “new normal”.

ITTF Foundation - World Table Tennis Day
For the first time in history, World Table Tennis Day was celebrated at home, and witnessed 3,900 people from 171 countries and regions taking part in the funniest, longest online table tennis rally. People were asked to use random objects from everyday life to hit the ball or to perform a trick shot in front of any table. This inspired participants to have fun at home using the most creative items to play table tennis, such as a garbage bin, flipper, banana, bicycle, and even toilet paper!

Baytak Nadeek Challenge by the Saudi Sports for All Federation
The digital national health and wellness campaign launched by the Saudi Sports for All Federation (SFA), Baytak Nadeek, reached more than 3.8 million people. The SFA’s aim for the Baytak Nadeek campaign (سياحتك بالبيت, Arabic for Your Home, Your Gym) was twofold: to encourage people to get active and keep fit during the period of pandemic lockdown, and connect with people across Saudi Arabia to unify and motivate the population.

AUSC RS & Mental Health Awareness Month
African Union Sports Council Region 5 supported Mental Health Awareness month with two online campaigns. To highlight the importance of the relationship between physical and mental well-being, AUSC RS shared e-fitness videos on their Facebook page. Secondly, they joined the Movember movement connected to men’s health awareness, with four episodes of the Morning Doctor, during which different topics were discussed with various specialists in the sector.

Sport Ireland Designs Free Online “Return to Sport” Course
In an effort to encourage sport and physical activity during the pandemic, Sport Ireland sought to close the information gap by providing accessible and relevant advice on how to be physically active during the COVID-19 pandemic. The free online course dubbed “COVID-19 Return to Sport” helped people understand how to implement simple changes to their practice to best minimise risks.

DOSB Publishes 10 Principles to be Active While Minimising Pandemic-Related Risks
On 28 April, the German Olympic Sports Confederation (DOSB) published a list of ten key principles to play sport and be physically active during the COVID-19 pandemic while minimising risks. From complying with social-distancing rules to providing special protection for members of risk groups, the list details practical and easy-to-follow recommendations to enjoy being active while safeguarding yourself and others.

TAFISA Mission 2030
TAFISA Mission 2030 is the roadmap for the Global Sport for All Movement to contribute to solving current global challenges.

Today, our people and our world face challenges and threats on a diverse scale never seen before - from climate change to civil unrest, non-communicable diseases, isolation, oppression, poverty, terrorism and the threat of nuclear war. These are not problems unique to any one demographic, geography, belief system or political status. These are global problems, faced by all of us; our friends, our neighbours, our families, our children. Without immediate and effective change, generations to come will not enjoy the world as we have done. The world they will live in will be a lesser world than ours. This is not only not fair, but unacceptable... and preventable.

TAFISA Mission 2030 provides a foundation for action and growth of the Sport for All and physical activity Movement to create a better world between now and 2030. TAFISA Mission 2030 was adopted by the TAFISA General Assembly in Seoul, Korea, on November 16, 2017.

"Connection" was undoubtedly a central concept throughout the past year. People and communities were creative and resourceful in finding ways to keep in touch, share, exchange and stand together in spite of the pandemic. The TAFISA Webinars succeeded in bringing together the Sport for All community to discuss the local realities across various regions of the world as well as provide successful initiatives and good practices to tackle the impact of the pandemic towards the Global Sport for All Movement.

On 13 July, the first webinar gathered 30 participants from 15 countries across Europe. Intervening from TAFISA Board Member Jenez Sodzimir (Slovenia Olympic Committee - Association of Sports Federations), Efri Mavrou (Cyprus Sports Organisation), Dr. Matu Turkmen (Turkish Sport for All Federation), Jacqueline Koningburg and Dorian Dijk (Knowledge Centre for Sport Netherlands), and Jorge Carvalho (Portuguese Institute of Sport and Youth) launched the conversation on how the Sport for All Movement can continue through the pandemic in European countries.

The next webinar on 21 July saw 46 participants from 16 African countries joining along with Dr. Paul Onyeudo (Nigeria Federal Ministry of Youth and Sports Development), Bobby Geseitsiwe (Botswana National Sport Commission), Dr. Hikabwa Chipande (AUSC Coordinator, Yaoundé, Cameroon), Felicite Chipura (AUSC Region 5), and Dr. Emad El Bannany (Egyptian Sport for All Federation). AUSC Region 5 Chairman Dr. Vetumbuavi Veii concluded the webinar by commending AUSC Region 5 and TAFISA for their cooperation, inviting organizations from other regions to join the Movement and further work together.

The third Regional Webinar on 7 July focused on Asia and brought together 45 participants from 36 countries. Opened by TAFISA President Prof. Dr. Ju-Ho Chang, who set the stage for further discussion and was then followed by insight on how different countries were responding to the pandemic from Dr. Hayano Isman (Indonesia Sport for All Association), Max Tamazawa (Sasakawa Sports Foundation), Shama Saleh Alhusseini (Saudi Sport for All Federation), Dr. Hank Huang (APEC Sports Policy Network (ASPNet)), Dr. Mitra Rouhi-Dehkordi (Iran Sport for All Federation) and Nopparat Satarat (Ministry of Tourism and Sports, Thailand). The webinar was concluded by ASFIA Secretary General and TAFISA Treasurer Herzel Hagy.

Following the success of the regional Webinars, similar events will be scheduled soon to keep the conversation going and leverage the power of Sport for All to build a better world for all.

A new initiative, the Global Design Challenge, gave the unique opportunity to develop ideas and solutions for the return to Sport and Physical Activity during and after Covid-19.

Teams had 72 hours to develop their idea in response to the question addressed by this year global challenge: “How might we sustainably redesign sport and physical activity for children and families, the young and the not-so-young, for participants, spectators, fans and community groups, so that it is inclusive, accessible, attainable – and fun! – during the pandemic and afterwards?”

The challenge was run by a network of sporting organisations in Ireland and internationally: TAFISA, UCC Sport, Sport Ireland, Cork Local Sports Partnership, Cappaneele National Centre for Outdoor Education and Training, and the Federation of Irish Sport, SCFA, TADTHUB, AFGO, The Rugby Site, Sport for Life Canada, EUPEA, CEREPS, AESEP, UNESCO Chair for Physical Activity and Health in Educational Settings (University of Basel, Switzerland), and UNESCO Chair in Inclusive Sport, (IT, Ireland) with the support of UNESCO and Devonport.

This first edition’s winner was the team behind “EnerEthics – Moulding Better Humans”, an ambitious and disruptive project aiming to develop a "Measurable Rating for Personal and Community Wellbeing" (PO). According to the project’s team, “PO enhances understanding and enables people to give expression to Wellbeing via responsible choices and wholesome lifestyles. These become manifest in a series of life-skills and humanistic capacities that propagate a lasting sense of meaning and purpose”.

Following the results, finalists went through a Matchathon phase for an opportunity to connect with incubators, accelerators and organisations who can provide resources and support to further develop and pilot their ideas.

Stay tuned for the next edition of the Global Design Challenge in 2021!
Africa

TAFISA’s outreach in Africa in 2020 has dramatically increased thanks to the ongoing partnership with the African Union Sports Council (AUSC) Region 5 and a new cooperation with the continental African Union Sports Council.

Renewed Partnership with AUSC Region 5
TAFISA and AUSC Region 5 renewed their partnership for another two years until May 2022. Active Cities

2020 was a busy year on the “Active City” front as TAFISA launched its new online Active City platform – in partnership with the Liverpool John Moores University. Revisiting the old “Triple AC – Active Cities, Active Communities, Active Citizens” programme, the platform introduces an overarching framework for all TAFISA initiatives in the field and repositions Triple AC to answer to the needs not only of cities, but also of national and international organisations.

Launch of the Triple AC Framework
Based on two pillars, the Triple AC Framework offers diverse solutions to stakeholders who wish to act at the level of the city setting and increase participation in Sport for All and physical activity among citizens.

“Activate Your Citizens” is the product-oriented pillar where interested parties can immediately engage their citizens in physical activity through TAFISA programmes and events.

“Develop Active Cities” is the process-oriented pillar based on 3 levels to cater to the diverse needs and expectations of stakeholders:

1. The entry level focuses on advocacy and awareness-raising about Active Cities and the significance of cities to promote physical activity.
2. The advanced level provides tools to develop national or local Active City strategies.
3. The expert level offers a chance to receive recognition through the Global Active City label.

Lausanne Becomes Global Active City

The Global Active City (GAC) Project counts a new certified GAC as the city of Lausanne, Switzerland, successfully passed their audit and received the GAC label. Throughout 2020, TAFISA and its partner Evaleo have continued their work to support cities worldwide in promoting physical activity.

Active City Innovation Moves Forward

TAFISA and the partners of the “Active City Innovation” (ACI) project met in Munich, Germany, on 20–21 February, as well as virtually on various occasions during the year to discuss the project’s progress and plan future developments. Various experimentation scenarios exploring technological, social and environmental innovations to get more citizens active are currently piloted in the UK, Spain, Japan and South Africa. Their evaluation will support the creation of a set of ACI good practices, guidelines, hub, and a capacity-building workshop in 2021-22.

ACI is one of three projects part of the International Sports-Innovation-Network (SINN-i), which was launched in 2019 and aims at stimulating and creating innovations in the field of physical activity, sport, and health, with the core focus of bringing more joy of movement into the world.

Celebrate TAFISA’s 30th Anniversary With Us!

2021 marks TAFISA’s 30th Anniversary! As we look back at the history of TAFISA, we will celebrate the people and organisations who have built and developed the Global Sport for All Movement up to this day, reflect on the learnings and knowledge gathered over the years, and how TAFISA’s history is connected with our current work and the future of Sport for All.

In 1969, Oslo, Norway, hosted the first “Trim and Fitness” Conference with representatives from eight European countries. These conferences, which went on to be organised every two years and developed into an unofficial steering medium for the Global Sport for All Movement, constituted the cradle for TAFISA. In 1991, representatives from 40 countries officially founded TAFISA in Bordeaux, France. Now in 2021, TAFISA counts 373 members from 160 countries.

You are invited to TAFISA’s Anniversary Party on Friday 8 October in Portorož, Slovenia, as part of the 27th TAFISA World Congress 2021. Join us on this historic date!

Tribute to Prof. Dr. Jürgen Palm

It was Dr. Jürgen Palm’s vision and initiative that led to the founding of TAFISA in 1991. Under his presidency, TAFISA developed significantly to become the world’s leading Sport for All organisation. In 2005, he was elected Honorary President of TAFISA and gave strong support to the organisation. Dr. Palm died at the age of 71 on 16 August 2006.

Help us celebrate this historic milestone!

Share your best Sport for All memories and photos from the 1990s, 2000s, and 2010s with us at media@tafisa.org.

They will be published in a special format highlighting 30 years of commitment towards Sport for All!

Thousands Pass the Baton from East to West in Worldwide Relay for TAFISA World Walking Day - 24 Hours Around the Globe

On Sunday 4 October, people from all over the world joined TAFISA World Walking Day - 24 Hours Around the Globe. This year’s event was a historic first and brought a new dimension to World Walking Day. Participants took a stand to show transnational solidarity against the COVID-19 pandemic by passing the baton across time-zones from east to west in a planet-wide relay. Dozens of thousands, hailing from 63 countries on all continents took part and shared powerful messages of peace, access to sport and education for all, gender equality, health, and solidarity against COVID-19 among many other causes, working together to create the most inclusive and accessible 24-hour relay.
During the day, thousands of participants joined the event and shared their participation through social media platforms, where they exchanged, encouraged each other, and followed the baton as it made its way through all time zones around the globe.

World Walking Day commenced at 10am local time, with Australia and Papua New Guinea starting the relay in Oceania and passing the baton across the ocean to Japan and Korea.

The baton continued its westward journey throughout the Asian continent, making stops in Macao (China), China, Sri Lanka, India, Bangladesh, and Kazakhstan among many other countries, while being passed through Russia’s 11 time zones. Iran and Mauritius then entered the relay and were quickly followed by Israel, Syria, and Qatar, as well as Turkey who - as part of the European Week of Sport - connected the event with the #BeActive message, setting the pace for its European neighbours.

Africa and Europe joined forces in a team effort which included, among many others, Albania, Kosovo, Namibia, Lesotho, France, Germany, South Africa, Mozambique, Serbia, and Nigeria. Scotland then passed the baton to Iceland and Togo who cast it across the Atlantic Ocean towards the American continent.

Brazil picked up the baton and shared it with Barbados, Mexico, Dominican Republic and Panama. The baton eventually completed its world tour by moving across the USA and Canada.

The TAFISA World Walking Day managed to reach every single continent, as even Antarctica joined the adventure!

In total, the baton was passed in 63 countries:
Albania, Argentina (Italy-France Station), Australia, Bangladesh, Barbados, Brazil, Bulgaria, Cameroon, Canada, Cayman Islands, China, Costa Rica, Croatia, Dominican Republic, Egypt, France, Germany, Hungary, Iceland, India, Iran, Israel, Japan, Jordan, Kazakhstan, Korea, Kosovo, Lesotho, Macao, China, Mauritius, Mexico, Mozambique, Namibia, Nepal, Netherlands, Nigeria, Pakistan, Palestine, Panama, Papua New Guinea, Philippines, Poland, Portugal, Puerto Rico, Qatar, Romania, Russia, Serbia, Slovakia, Slovenia, South Africa, Spain, Sri Lanka, Syria, Thailand, Togo, Trinidad & Tobago, Tunisia, Turkey, United Kingdom, United States, Zimbabwe.

TAFISA would like to shout a huge “Thank You!” to all those who made the event an unprecedented success, this would not have been possible without you all!

The contributions and messages shared for the event were tremendous and TAFISA can only emphasise how proud and humbled the organisation is to see such dedication, commitment and enthusiasm from the Global Sport for All Movement. TAFISA is also grateful for the renowned ambassadors who offered their time and notoriety to help spread the word within their community.

History
TAFISA World Walking Day is the most inclusive and accessible relay around the world. Over the past three decades, millions of participants have taken part all over the world.
TAFISA & IOC Partnership

TAFISA is proud to be recognised by and work in close cooperation with the International Olympic Committee. This long-standing partnership started in 2010 and led both parties to sign a 4-year agreement in 2017, including the following activities for 2020:

1. Development of educational activities, including a pilot of the first ever online TAFISA Certified Leadership Course, organised by the African Union Sports Council Region 5.
2. Development of Active City activities.
3. Support to the IOC in the Sport and Active Society Development Grants process.

TAFISA’s strong partnership with the IOC is also documented by the renewed appointment of TAFISA’s Secretary General Wolfgang Baumann in the IOC Sport and Active Society Commission, for which he attended meetings on 18 January in Lausanne, Switzerland and on 4 November virtually.

The Sport for All and Olympic families’ collaborative relations and exchange are ongoing, with over 60 National Olympic Committees currently registered as TAFISA members.

TAFISA thanks the IOC for its ongoing support.

TAFISA & UNESCO Partnership

In 2020, TAFISA and UNESCO continued their privileged partnership through CIGEPS (Intergovernmental Committee for Physical Education and Sport).

TAFISA, as a CIGEPS consultative member, attended the annual ordinary session of CIGEPS, held virtually on 28-29 September. Among other items on the agenda, the meeting reviewed and assessed the progress of the international implementation of the Kazan Action Plan, and started preparations for its update, leading up to the 7th International Conference of Ministers and Senior Officials Responsible for Physical Education and Sport (MINEPS VII), set to take place in Kenya on 14 – 17 June 2021.

Following the election of the new member countries of the Committee during the 40th session of the UNESCO General Conference, this year’s CIGEPS session also elected its new Chair and Vice-Chairs. TAFISA congratulates Ms Rosa Rakotozafy (Madagascar), who was unanimously elected CIGEPS Chair. She is the first woman to lead the Committee since its creation in 1978.

The UNESCO CIGEPS includes experts in the field of physical education and sport from 18 UNESCO Member States. The goal of CIGEPS is to promote sport, its role and value, and to enhance its inclusion in public policy. TAFISA has been a CIGEPS consultative member since 2011 and sits every year at the CIGEPS meetings, which are attended by 100 participants from all over the world.

TAFISA also joined UNESCO’s Conference “The Voice of NGOs: Global citizenship to spur inclusion and diversity” on 14 September.

In 2020 TAFISA was delighted to receive approval of its application to the UNESCO Participation Programme to organise a “Women Leadership Through Sport for All - Training the next Generation of Women Sport for All Leaders in Oceania” programme in 2021 (more page 12).
TAFISA Family Day

TAFISA Family Day celebrates our members’ commitment for a better world. It is a great opportunity for TAFISA members to share their efforts in combatting physical inactivity through Sport for All as well as increase awareness of innovative campaigns, projects, events, programmes, etc. within the TAFISA Family and the Global Sport for All Movement.

In July 2020, TAFISA Family Day celebrated its first anniversary as it was launched on July 26, 2019. Since its beginning, every Friday is TAFISA Family Day with 72 organisations having been showcased across our social media platforms so far. Organisations have shared their thoughts on what Sport for All means for them, what topic is close to their heart, as well as their favourite Sport for All memories.

Female Leaders of Tomorrow

What is the project about?

Female Leaders of Tomorrow (FLOT) aims to equip and empower a new generation of young African and European women active in the field of Sport for All with the necessary skills, experience and guidance to lead the Global Sport for All Movement. Through a comprehensive global mobility and mentoring programme, the participants will strengthen their future employability and enhance their personal and professional development through the acquisition of new skills, knowledge and experience gained through nonformal education and time spent in foreign countries.

Each participant is part of a trio composed of two mentees (1 African, 1 European) and one mentor (African or European). The mentoring trios allow for the mentees to learn from each other and also from their mentor’s vast experience and knowledge in the field of Sport for All.

Each mentee is tasked with designing their own project to realise during the project lifecycle with the support and guidance of the mentors and project partners.

The project can either be undertaken individually or as a joint effort between the two mentees within the trio and it must be in relation to Sport for All. The mentees will present their projects during the 27th TAFISA World Congress, 6–10 October 2021, Portorož, Slovenia.

Where are we now?

The website has been launched and there you can find more information about the project, trios/quad, mentees’ individual projects as well as a selection of good practices and resources related to women empowerment, women in sport, and Sport for All from the perspective of girls and women.

Next steps?

Mobility 1 - Trio week

The first mobility will take place in the home country of the mentor and will allow the trios to meet in person for the first time. The mentees will take part in an individual mentoring programme which will focus on job shadowing, personal and professional development and exchanges of knowledge and experience with their mentor. The objective of this face to face meeting is for the mentoring trios to get to know each other in a personal and professional sense.

Mobility 2 - TAFISA World Congress

The second mobility will focus on knowledge and experience sharing. It involves all mentors and mentees meeting together during the 27th TAFISA World Congress in October 2021 in Portorož, Slovenia. This will also constitute an outstanding opportunity for mentees and mentors to network and learn from experts from all over the world.

Mobility 3 - African Union Sports Council Region 5 Youth Games

For 10 days, the mentees will volunteer and be integrated into the African Union Sports Council (AUSC) Region 5 Youth Games’ Organising Team. By undertaking this important role, the mentees will have an opportunity to gain significant first-hand experience in the organisation, delivery, and management of a grassroots sport event.

* FLOT Trios are meeting virtually at least once per month to keep in touch, discuss progress of their projects and ensure objectives and milestones are being met. This is a very important component of the project as it allows the mentors to advise and support the mentees and it gives the mentees an opportunity to ask questions and raise concerns. As physical meetings are not possible right now due to the COVID-19 pandemic, virtual workshops and online training will be offered to the mentees to assist them in the design and delivery of their individual projects and enhance their knowledge and understanding of the Global Sport for All Movement.

ADVICE created a mobile application designed to reduce the prevalence of doping among young athletes in grassroots sports. Doping also happens at the grassroots level and this may be due to a lack of awareness of what constitutes banned substances, and athletes at this level having little comprehension of the dangers that banned substances pose to one’s health. Through 5 interactive modules, the app aims to raise awareness of young people on Fair Play, Substances, Supplements, Rules and Support. It is available on iOS and Android.

INTERACT
INTERNATIONAL AND EUROPEAN SPORT ORGANISATIONS ACTIVATE CITIZENS

Period:
January 2021 – December 2022

TAFISA’s project “International and European Sport Organisations Activate Citizens” (INTERACT), will initiate on 1 January 2021 and last until December 2022, gathering International and European Sport Organisations (ISOs) to develop a new delivery system that places participation in Sport for All and physical activity at its core. It will reflect on how to adapt sports, their rules, settings, delivery, etc. to the needs of target groups and grassroots sport participation, and on how ISOs can better contribute to achieve the objectives of key European and International policy papers. A set of resources will be developed to empower and support ISOs and their respective National Federations to adopt new strategies to promote Sport for All and physical activity participation, including the following:

• A study and report on ISOs’ needs and expectations towards the project and to better promote (and increase) participation.
• An online and easily accessible platform of good practices.
• An ISOs’ Sport for All and physical activity toolkit.
• A “Capacity building in Sport for All and physical activity” training for ISOs staff and volunteers.
• A new ISOs’ International Sport for All event.

What is the project about?
Europe in Action promotes participation in sport and physical activity through providing analytical, educational and know-how activities all over Europe which transfer existing key policies into practical action. Europe in Action aims to guide local and national stakeholders during the implementation of practical actions, focusing on identified key policy areas to achieve the success of a more active society. This will be possible due to two conferences and three “Active Meetings” which offer an opportunity to bring together Sport for All actors for knowledge and experience sharing as well as the presentation of case studies and good practices. The five events will also provide a pivotal moment for the project partners to present on the project results, including the regional analyses of the Sport for All Movement.
